Railroads in Germany.

At the beginning of the year 1906 the total length of the standard gauge railroads in Germany aggregated 34,124 English miles, an increase of 21.3 per cent. over the mileage length of ten years ago. The area of the German empire is 208,780 square miles and it contains a population of 62,125,000. For every 100,000 inhabitants this would give 6.1 miles length of track. The receipts from passenger traffic for the year 1906 amounted to $163,773,750, exceeding by 63.4 per cent. those of the year 1895. The passenger and baggage traffic contributed 28.19 per cent. to the total receipts.

Nature's Laws Defied.

A lawyer of the name of Mayne, who was a highly respected but decidedly heavy person, had risen to a judgeship, while Keller, who had entered on his legal career at about the same time with Mayne, was still much in want of clients and fees. He was in a court room one day when Mayne was solemnly presiding and he turned to a friend who sat beside him and plucked his sleeve. "See there?" he whispered. "There sits Mayne, risen by his gravity, and here sits Keller, sunk by his levity. What would Isaac Newton say to that, I'd like to know?"

Church Made of One Tree.

A large Baptist church that stands in the City of Santa Rosa, Cal., enjoys the distinction of having been constructed entirely from a single tree. Of course, that includes the woodwork of the structure. The tree from which the timbers, lumber and shingles were cut was a giant California redwood. A considerable quantity of the lumber was left over after the church building was completed. The building has a spire 70 feet high; an audience room capable of seating 499, a parlor capable of seating 80, a pastor's study 14x20 feet, a vestibule and other rooms.

Two Advertising Truths.

A soap millionaire and an actor-manager were talking business. "I," said the actor-manager, "have discontinued the use of posters. My announcements appear in the newspapers exclusively. I have learned that those who don't read the papers don't go to the theater."

"You are wise," said the soap millionaire. "And I do like you. Long since I discarded every form of advertisement save that of the press, finding that they who didn't read a daily paper had no use for soap."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Mining in Sweden.

The mineral output of Sweden is interesting, for few people know that this country has a mineral field. There are 326 iron mines worked in Sweden. The total production for 1905 was 4,464,833 tons of ore. Total value of the ore products was $6,164,784 for that period. During 1905 there were 129 furnaces producing 529,437 tons of pig iron, worth $10,091,396. The value of the gold ore produced in Sweden during 1905 was $36,450; silver, $52,801; copper, $114,255; manganese, $7,961; zinc, $796,666, and coal, $636,550.

The New Quartz Industry.

In the past few years the smelting of quartz, to be cast into a great variety of vases, capsules, crucibles, hollow tubes, and so forth, has assumed considerable industrial importance. Quartz melted in the electric furnace form a glass of iridescent brilliance, with which many kinds of jewels and ornaments are made. It can be colored with great ease, and in a great variety of tones and shades. In laboratories, apparatus made of smelted quartz has become practically indispensable.

A Hornet Nest Prophet.

A mild winter, says John Peterman, Butler's hornet nest prophet. The hornets are building high in the air. If the signs are for severe cold they build on the ground, where the snow drifts over them to protect the larvae from the cold. If they select a place high for their nest they prophesy a warm, open winter. The corn husks, too, tell of a mild winter, says the hornet nest prognosticator. The husks are thin and few.—Punxsutawney (Pa.) Spirit.

A Suit for Damages.

A Kansas farmer wanted a big suit for damages brought against a railroad company because his old brindle cow had been run over during the night. On questioning him his lawyer couldn't find a single peg upon which he could legitimately hang a case.

"Well," he said, "I kinder thought ye could fetch it on the sign bein' down. They wan't no sign, 'Look out for the cars,' so I thought mebbe ye could git 'em on that."

Coffee Crop of Brazil.

Final official figures for the coffee crop of Brazil for the year ending June 30 show that the total entries in all Brazil reached 20,409,180 bags, representing an increase over the previous year of 9,353,802 bags, or 84.6 per cent., and an amount over the average for the last four years of 8,948,797 bags, and exceeding the previous banner crop of 1901-2 by 4,132,715 bags, or 25.4 per cent.

The January Smart Set.

THE SMART SET begins the year 1908 most auspiciously. Its contributors number many of the most notable living writers. The novlette is from the pen of that always delightful author, Anne Warner. It is entitled "Wanted—An Original Gentleman," and concerns the whimsical adventures of a young man who believes himself stranded in Europe and answers a curious advertisement. The story, in itself a charming one, is illuminated by many clever human touches, which cannot fail to divert every reader.

Vance Thompson, one of the most finished writers of the day, has never written a better piece of work than his brief sketch, "The Mona Lisa." It is as powerful as anything from the Great French masters, and it will be remembered and talked about. In "The Goddess of Art," Kate Masterson writes a charming little sketch of Bohemian life; "His Silent Partners," by John Regnault Ellyson, is a beautiful romance; "In Earthen Vessels," by Austin Adams, is a powerful study of a clergyman and his wife; "The Shurtleff Dinners," by Frederick Herron, is a splendid club story.

Saloon Transferred.

A brief called session of the city council was held Tuesday afternoon and a license was issued to Thomas Pitt to retail spirituous, vinous and malt liquors at the southwest corner of Sixth and Virginia streets for 1907 and 1908. No other business was transacted. Mr. Pitt recently bought out the saloon of A.O. Locke.

The American Boy.

A two-color drawing of Santa Claus adorns the front cover of the December American Boy. The stories and articles in this number will delight not only the boys but their elders as well. The fascinating story of Jimmy Jones—Pirate the Boy and the Beast, increases in interest, and Off the Reservation, by Edward S. Ellis, is brought to a conclusion. Among the shorter stories, Christmas, of course, takes first place, there being two. In addition there are 57 illustrations. $1.00 a year. The Sprague Publishing Co., Detroit, Mich.
